

Landscapes2024 Juror

Juror for the Landscapes2024 Exhibition is Dayton native Esther Kadash, a glass fusion artist and post-impressionistic acrylic painter, whose interests lie in interrelations of color and shape to describe the world.

Her studio, glazzART, is located at Front Street, Dayton's Art Center.

She received a Bachelor of Science and Master of Education from Wright State University. She founded Artkare, an Art Therapy program for Dayton area Nursing Home residents.

“Working in glass allows a highly satisfying integration of creative experiences. My foundation was drawing, followed by exploring clay and acrylic paint, with texture and color always defining my work.

I experienced an immediate fascination and obsession when introduced to glass fusion a few years ago. Drawing, manipulating shapes and layers, and applying texture and vibrant colors exploded into a new and perfect union for me.”
